Inside Out magazine's Lucy E. Cousins looks at the latest in design and architecture

1 BEAUTIFUL WALLS
 ADDING to Australia's recent obsession with colourful, boutique wallpaper, Porter's Paints has just released a new range by Brisbane-based interior designer Anna Spiro, author of design blog Absolutely Beautiful Things. The hand-painted range comprises three designs in 15 colours and is true to Porter's Paints trademark vintage press processes. For information see porterspains.com

2 FRANK AND OPEN
 DESIGN guru Frank Chimero will be giving a talk in Sydney on June 8 to discuss his work, his new book and how designers can engage more with their audience. Chimero, whose talk is presented by multi-platform company Portable, is a US graphic designer and illustrator who has wide experience, from WIRED magazine to Nike and is known as a mover and shaker in the design industry. 3 LONDON-BOUND
 THE London Design Festival is one of the must-see events on any design lover's calendar. In September, the Sydney-based International School of Colour and Design is conducting a London Design Tour. The seven-day tour, in conjunction with The Heartful Travellers, includes accommodation in a Philippe Starck-designed hotel, visits to 100% Design and TENT, guided tours of the Victoria and Albert museum, morning tea at Fortnum & Mason and free time to explore the Olympic capital. There is an information session on June 2. For details see iscd.edu.au/the-heartful-travellers
